

Philadelphia Juneteenth Festival: 400 Years of Resilience, Sat. June 15, 2019

Time	Schedule Of Activities	Location
10 am 11:30 am	MENNONITES AND THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD Daniel Ness, Historian, African-American Historical Society of South Central Pennsylvania, will discuss his research regarding Mennonites and the Underground Railroad in South Central and Southeastern, PA.	Germantown Mennonite Historic Trust 6133 Germantown
12 – 7 pm	RESOURCE INFORMATION ~ CULTURAL & HISTORIC MARKETPLACE	Sidewalks/Street
12 – 7 pm	CITY OF HOPE: RESURRECTION CITY & THE 1968 POOR PEOPLE’S CAMPAIGN EXHIBIT Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s daring vision for economic justice and opportunity for U.S. citizen exhibit examines the grassroots/multiracial movement that drew thousands to Washington, DC. FREE BOOKS	DHEX Enterprises Inc. Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition, NMAAHC 6353 Germantown
12 - 7 pm	CHILDREN’S VILLAGE Philly Goat Project (4-6pm) , Moon Bounce, Face Painting, Arts, Crafts, Balloon Art, SEPTA Bus	Little Einstein Early Learning Center 6316 Germantown
12 pm 3 pm	LIBERTY TO GO SEE A dramatic play about Cliveden that explores the lives of 3 generations of the Chew Family and their indentured and enslaved servants. Purchase tickets $15 at: www.cliveden.org	Cliveden 6401 Germantown
2 pm 3 pm 4 pm	THEATRE: IMAGES OF THE MOTHERLAND Bilali Muhammad-Almamy of Sapelo Island GA (2PM) ~ Muhammad Ali ibn Sayyid-292 United States Colored Troops (3PM) ~ and Sojourner Truth-Forgotten Roots (4PM)	Our House Culture Center 6376 Germantown
2– 4 pm	WHO PAYS: THE INCARCERATION OF WOMEN & GIRLS A panel will discuss the social implications of the incarceration of women and girls; its traumatic impact on families and community; and strategies to empower and engage the community to take action. RSVP	Germantown Mennonite Historic Trust 6133 Germantown
12:30 pm	MEET HARRIET TUBMAN UGRR CONDUCTOR Featuring Millicent Sparks Productions	Johnson House Lawn 6306 Germantown
1 pm - 1:45 pm 3pm - 3:45 pm	SLAVE NARRATIVE: 400 Years of Resistance Grounded Theatre Company will present a site specific performance of The Slave Narratives. Based on interviews of formerly enslaved people gathered during the 1930s, the play provides a window into their lives during and after slavery. https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-slave-narratives-for-philadelphia-juneteenth-festival-june-15-2019-tickets-62123454926	Concord School House and Upper Burying Ground 6309 Germantown
12 – 7 pm	BEER GARDEN: & ATTIC BREWING COMPANY & YOUNG AMERICAN HARD CIDER Featuring “ Be Free or Die and Unbounded Beers ” and “ Specialty Hard Ciders ”	Young American Cider Company 6350 Germantown
MAIN STAGE Featuring Outta Sight Productions
12 pm	FESTIVAL KICK OFF ~ LIBATION CEREMONY Drumline, Percussion Drumming (Boy Scout Troop #1719) ~ Reading of General Order #3 (3rd Regiment United States Colored Troops) ~ Libation Pouring (Iraina Salaam) ~ “Oh Freedom” (Cerise Dash) ~ Tye’himba Drum & Dance Ensemble
12:30 pm	WELCOME, PHILADELPHIA MAYOR JIM KENNEY
1 pm	The Kama –Sahlor Group for Cultural Performing Arts (African Dance, Hip Hop/Pop)
1:30 pm	Kenneth Skyes (Saxophone)
2 pm	The Knox Street Band, featuring Tamara Anderson (Blues)
2:30 pm	Diety (African Dance)
2:50 pm	OTG (Gospel)
3:15 pm	Nigiarry Porcena-Meneus, Rynira Elam (Poetry)
3:30 pm	Rhyxm (R& B)
3:50 pm	Semaj, HazeltheAura (Poetry)
4:15 pm	Tia Shanae (R&B)
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS ~ CENTER FOR SOCIAL ADVOCACY
4:40 pm	Tori Shani (Urban Pop/R&B)
5:45 pm	Karter (Urban Pop)
6:15 pm	FYRESTORM BAND (Urban Pop/R& B)
7 pm	Festival Ends	